The Quad Manhattan Talent Expert: Theater

Position Description

Talent Experts will plan and implement talent development-based curricula for twice-exceptional students during The Quad Manhattan Summer Program. They maintain the most current and cutting-edge knowledge in their industry in order to propel the skills of gifted children limitlessly forward. Theater Instructors will specifically work with several groups of no more than 10 children for a 30-60 minute block during the camp day. Curriculum should focus on developing musical talent for all students, regardless of level of background knowledge. All work should culminate in an end of summer performance, no matter how big or small, for each student or group of students. Optional private lesson offerings are to be determined based on availability of the instructor and interest of student(s) to prepare for auditions or outside performances, fine tune their gifts for performance or pleasure.
